

Climate Change

Leaders of the world are meeting to unite in an effort to protect the planet from global warming. We must tell them we are very concerned and want them to do all they can to commit to saving our Earth.

Here's how you can help. You have to act quickly! Print out the card from the link below and then cut it out. Add additional comments if you wish, place a 28 cent stamp on the card, address it to President Obama and put it in the mail.
